Ms. Moccia, a shareholder in the Firm, concentrates her practice in every aspect of estate planning, from simple wills and powers of attorney to advanced tax planning involving revocable and irrevocable trusts, special needs trusts and other sophisticated planning techniques. She also serves as counsel to family members serving as fiduciary for the administration of trusts and estates, which typically involves the preparation of fiduciary income tax returns. Ms. Moccia has expanded her practice as an elder law attorney, providing counsel to seniors and their families on matters ranging from asset protection to Medicaid eligibility for long term care.

Ms. Moccia contributes her time and talent to her community, currently serving on the Board of Directors of the Virginia Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (VAELA), and previously serving on the Planned Giving Committee of St. Mary's Home. She has also volunteered as a Certified Mediator for the Virginia Beach, Norfolk and Chesapeake Courts. She formerly served as Chair of the Virginia State Bar Trusts and Estates Section and served as a Board member from 2012-2018. Formerly a Board Member of the Virginia State Bar Young Lawyers Conference from 2011-2015, she served as the VSB liaison for various projects, including: Wills for Heroes, Docket Call publication, Pro Bono Commission, Children in the Law Commission, Professional Development Conference and the Professional Development Series.
